

Balancing Family and Work

Advice and services to help you care for children and other family members

Achieve the balance between family and work with the right care solution

There are times at which family life, with caring for children, or sick or elderly relatives – or both at once – is a full-on role. At the same time, you're expected to produce top performance at work. To help the working generation achieve this balancing act, your employer has joined profawo to ensure that you benefit from a whole range of services.

For parents and parents-to-be:

- Free advice on childcare and organizing your family
- Placement of children in our centrally located kids & co daycare centres at reduced member rates
- Free Nanny-finder service
- Emergency childcare (emergency nannies) at reduced member rates
- Holiday programmes for pre-schoolers and school-age children with guaranteed performance

Give us a call – we will be happy to help:

profawo Basel

061 515 69 67, bs@profawo.ch

profawo Bern

031 311 74 09, bern@profawo.ch

profawo Suisse romande

022 321 02 78, sr@profawo.ch

profawo Zurich

044 254 60 50, zuerich@profawo.ch

For employees looking after their parents or other relatives:

- Advice on relief options in acute situations, as a precaution or in stressful long-term situations, the first 2 hours for each case are free
- Free arrangement of relief services such as transport, meal service or domestic help
- Free placement of relief services in emergencies
- Individual care management solution in crisis situations that require hands-on coordination by third parties

For managers:

- Free annual input lecture on the topic of work & care
- Free annual «Early Bird Breakfast» about current HR topics
- Lectures on combining family and work at corporate events
- Individual solutions to combine family and work
- Organisation of childcare solutions at company events